Please be sure to check your "spam" before letting us know you did not receive the link to the report card. Remember you will need to enter your student's birthdate DD-MM-YYYY, making sure to add the dashes between, to access the report card. Please call the school if you require a paper copy of the report card.

Please be sure to tell your child what they are doing at school that makes you proud of them!

Wednesdays are School Spirit Days

Students are encouraged to show their school spirit on Wednesdays by wearing Red or Blue, or both! In March all students received a free school spirit t-shirt so that all students may participate in SPIRIT DAYS on Wednesdays.

April 2 is World Autism Awareness & Acceptance Day

APRIL 2 is WORLD AUTISM AWARENESS DAY Some ways to be an inclusive caring community member to someone living with autism: Use simple language and short sentences. Give no more than two-step instructions.

Overstimulation can sometimes overwhelm people living with autism and cause a meltdown. A meltdown looks similar to a temper tantrum but it is not the same at all. Be patient & kind and try to reduce or remove the cause of the overstimulation.

Sometimes different is intimidating but educating yourself about autism and about people we know who have autism, will help.

For more about being an inclusive community member, check out: <https://www.autismspeaks.org/tool-kit/school-community-tool-kit>
